Was to come from.

Nor are the figures for pioneering youth from the West any great solace. There are barely one thousand in training at the present time, of whom 430 are in Bouth America, 180 in France, 185 in England and only 114 in the United States including 64 already training in Izrael itself. A breakdown of the total immigration figures for 1903 till August shows a further decline. From Western Europe the number is 803, there are eight from South Africa and 682 from the whole American continent, these numbers including 83 from the United States. 31 from Canada and 125 from Britain.
